

XBODY GROUP-FITNESS CONCEPT FOR FITNESS STUDIOS AND GYMS

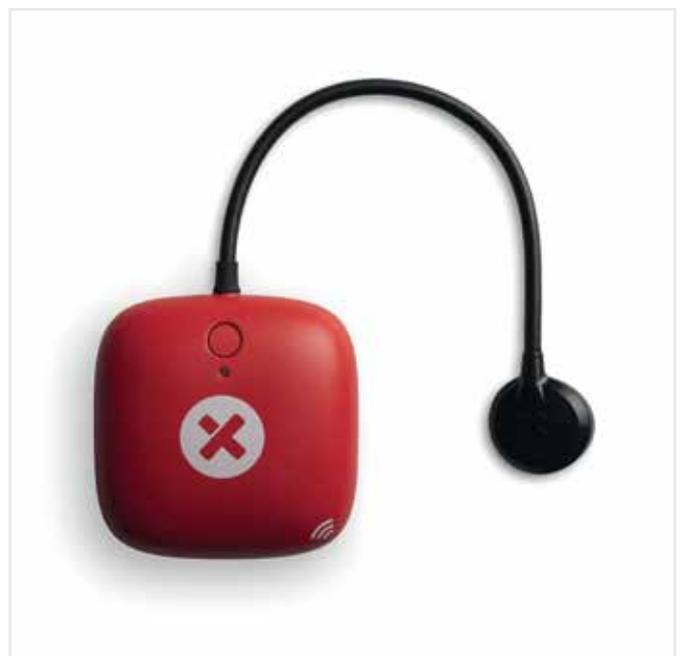

OFFER YOUR CUSTOMERS THE EMS TRAINING AS A GROUP-FITNESS CONCEPT WITH UP TO 6 CLIENTS PER SESSION.

EMS training is the talk of the town everywhere - not just business owners, but end users are also increasingly interested in this future-oriented training method. Why? The sessions are short, trendy and extremely intense!

With the XBody fitness studio Group-Fitness Concept, you can offer your customers EMS training as a group training method. By using the built-in virtual video trainer, you have the possibility to create your own sessions and transfer them to a TV or projector. This way the instructor can focus on the participants during the 20-minute training, and can motivate them or correct their posture and modify training intensity.

Advantages for studios and gyms:

- unlock new customer segments
- Increase the satisfaction of your existing customers by offering them new services
- fast revenue turnover
- get advantage vs. EMS microstudios - you can offer a more comprehensive and versatile service portfolio including the EMS training
- High recommendation rate amongst clients
- "XBody Online": a unique software system to control and manage your EMS studio
- low operational costs with minimalized spare part costs
- Studio Operation Manual: learn how to maximize your capacity utilization for fastest profit, get recommendations on how to run your studio smoothly and the most efficient way, real life examples, operational experience and know-how for maximum turnover and client satisfaction

Check out brand new Professional mode, where you can set up the intensity in an individual way you have never experienced before!

You can set up the impulse depth individually channelwise

With the help of the virtual video trainer you can focus on your clients to correct their posture and change intensity of impulses.
